

Cindy Lane

- Biography -

Cindy is an Educator, Instructional Technology Specialist and a Network Sherpa. She is also an adjunct professor teaching online classes for SBU, Mizzou and eLearning for MO educators. She further assists teachers in her roles as a Discovery Education certified trainer, Master Trainer for Intel Teach to the Future, and as an eMINTS Instructional Trainer.

She has presented at state, national and international conferences for the past seven years. Cindy is extremely innovative and resourceful and specializes in finding unique and creative ways to use traditional computer tools in the classroom.

Cindy is Missouri's first Google Certified Teacher and has facilitated a Google Teacher Academy in Chicago, IL. She is the founder of the GCT/CUE Dinner Club Webinar Series, a monthly presentation that is able to be viewed by the 300+ Google Certified Teachers around the world. Her passion "is to lead teachers on their quest to understand technology and to seamlessly integrate it into their daily lessons thus making their lives and the lives of their students easier and more fulfilling."